

The Battleship New Jersey Library Membership Program

The USS New Jersey was launched on December 7th, 1942 and served in Wars such as: World War II, Korean, Vietnam, and the beginning of Middle Eastern. After a long and exciting career, the Battleship New Jersey was decommissioned February 8th, 1991. The Ship is now open for tours given by expert tour guides.

The tours are interactive and require guests to go up and down ladders, through tight areas, and to stand for long periods of time.

The membership pass entitles you to a 10% discount on the Overnight Encampments and the Museum Store. Members may receive free or reduced admission to special events. Please inquire with the battleship personnel with any questions.
