

NATIONAL LIBERTY MUSEUM

321 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, PA. 19106

Located in the heart of historic Philadelphia, the National Liberty Museum is dedicated to preserving America's heritage of freedom by encouraging people to find their own place in the story of liberty. Visitors to the Museum enjoy an inspiring and entertaining experience, as they interact with incredible stories of heroes and a collection of contemporary art. Come see an exact replica of the Liberty Bell that still rings, life size children made of jellybeans, and our famous "Flame of Liberty" by Dale Chihuly made just for the National Liberty Museum

Liberty comes to life at the National Liberty Museum. Discover the stories of real-life heroes, including Jackie Robinson, Nelson Mandela, Jim Henson and 2014 Nobel Peace Prize winner Malala Yousafzai through the museum's interactive exhibitions and inspirational galleries.

The museum pass allows admission for up to 2 adults and 4 children. Children under 5 are free.

Please call the National Liberty Museum (215-925-2800) or go to their website: www.libertymuseum.org for hours of operation. The museum is fully accessible for people with disabilities.

For more information about the museum pass program please visit the library website: www.berlinborolibrary.org, call the library at 856-767-2448 or email: mfml@berlinborolibrary.org